PARTNER

Henry D. Kass is a partner at MKFM Law, LLC, who focuses primarily in the areas of domestic relations and criminal law. He obtained his bachelor of arts from the University of Iowa in Iowa City, Iowa and also studied abroad at the University of the Basque Country in San Sebastian, Spain. Following his studies overseas, Henry attended the University of Iowa College of Law where he obtained his Juris Doctorate. Thereafter, he became employed as an Assistant State's Attorney with the DuPage County State's Attorney's Office where he prosecuted domestic violence and felony cases and was awarded a Special Commendation. Henry has tried dozens of cases before a jury and several hundreds more before the bench. In addition, Henry taught family law for five years at the College of DuPage. He has published articles in the DuPage County Bar Association Brief and the Illinois State Bar Association Newsletter, served both as the Vice Chair and Chair to the Child

Advocacy Committee, and has been awarded the Pro Bono Service Award by the DuPage Legal Assistance Foundation. Currently, Henry is licensed both in the State of Illinois and Iowa and practices primarily in the counties of Cook, DeKalb, DuPage, Grundy, Kane, Kendall, and Will. He is a member of the Justinian Society of Lawyers, a Fellow of the Illinois Bar Foundation, and served on the DuPage County Judicial Committee where he and a panel of select other attorneys interviewed judicial applicants. He has also served two terms as an elected Assembly Member to the Illinois State Bar Association where he voted on administrative policies as well as revisions to existing law to be considered by the Illinois General Assembly in Springfield.
